Continous visas for Stateless Aliens.

WITH reference to paragraph 26 of the Revised and Consolidated Visa Regulations for the United Kingdom (page 180 of the summary of Visa Regulations) it has now been decided that you may grant, without reference, continous visas, valid for any number of journeys within a maximum period of six months. to Stateless aliens who satisfy you that it is necessary for them for the purpose of their business, to make frequent journeys to the United Kingdom, provided that -

(a) the application is supported by the Commercial Secretariat at the local British Embassy or Legation;

(b) the applicant holds a refugee travel document or some other travel document bearing a re-entry visa or permit with an unexpired validity amply covering the period of the visa granted;

(c) the grant of such continuous visas is limited tc persons who are so well established in their present county of residence as to eliminate all risk of their attempting to settle in the United Kingdom.

Subject to provisos (b) and (c) above where a continuous visa is granted to a Stateless business man, a continuous visa may also be granted to his wife, secretary or other member of his staff whom he is in the habit of taking abroad with him on his business trips.

Doubtful cases may be referred. Please make a suitable note in the summary.
